Miss Dillard 2001-2002

"Barnum & Bailey Circus," beware! Renata Douglass and Divonica Harrell prepares cotton candy for students. They look like professionals but ladies stick to the books! Their hardwork is to support their best friend Tiffany Bartley's campaign.

Juniors Eric Brown, Torray Johnson and Crystal Rose gather to help out Brandi Smith on her campaign. Miss Smith handed out candy and nachos to the student body.

Move out the way these basketball players want to know the candidates. Ike Ram and Lancelot Lonke looks on as the candidates campaign in Kearny Lounge. Lance decides to write a few notes to remind him who's who in the race, while Ike reads literature about one of the candidates.

Tiffany Bartley shows off her social skills. She gathers at her campaign table to present her school spirit and pride. That's a nice banner to promote her campaign slogan.

Watch out Miss America! These three candidates are out to take your job. Miss Dillard Candidates Brandi Smith, Candi Nash and Tiffany Bartley poses with Miss Dillard 2000, Africa Harris. These three young ladies all have potential to be Miss Dillard.

Unity is the key to all social problems. Brandi Smith and Tiffany Bartley both members of greek sororities share a special moment to promote Greek Unity. This photo will be called the "Pink & Cream"

A Race, Fit for a Queen

■ ■ ■ Future Miss Dillard ■ ■ ■

To be Miss Dillard is definitely an honor as well as a great responsibility. Miss Dillard's duties are to serve the student population as a member of the Student Government Association and to represent Dillard University to the general public. It's obvious that Miss Dillard must possess certain qualities such as sophistication, responsibility and sociability. Miss Dillard must have a sense of pride in her community and overall she must be an outstanding person.

The Miss Dillard Showcase for the 2001-2002 academic year was held on March 28, 2001. It was hosted by the current Miss Dillard, Africa Harris. The three candidates were beautiful as they stated their platforms.

Miss Brandi Rae Smith, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., is a native from Shreveport, LA. Her slogan is "Unity, Pride, & Community," reflects her desire to achieve not only Greek Unity but campus unity.

Miss Candi Nash, a strong supporter of community service, is from Jackson, MS and feels that the way to achieve a better Dillard is through service. She has been on Miss Dillard's court for the past 3 years.

Miss Tiffany Bartley, a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., is from Jackson, MS. She feels that, "Together, there is nothing we can't face."

All three candidates have been campaigning for a week. There have been all kind of treats that have been given to the student body by the candidates, to gain their support. On March 30th, students will support their favorite candidate by casting their vote. The excitement is heightened by the suspense as we await our new queen.

Just as summer internships are integral parts of a college student's career, so are study abroad experiences. Joanna Kirby is the first student of Dillard to study in Japan. She spent a semester at Waseda University, one of Japan's top universities. "I walked around Tokyo for about a month with my mouth open in awe," says Kirby. "The technology is simply amazing. The only thing that was disheartening to me is the lack of representation of African-Americans in the country." She also enjoyed the three weeks that she spent with her host family in Japan.

The Rise and Fall of Election 2000

■ ■ ■ "Rock the Vote" ■ ■ ■

In Fall 2000, many Dillard students prepared to say their final good-byes to the 8-year administration of President William Jefferson Clinton. The campaigns of both Texas Governor George W. Bush and Vice President Al Gore caught the attention of many students and, as a result, they went in large numbers to cast their votes on November 7, 2000. Whether voting by absentee ballot or in person, students made sure that their voices and opinions would be heard.

Tonjala Eaton, a sophomore international business and Spanish major from Birmingham, Ala., said, "I took much pride in this voting experience because it was my first one. The percentage of African-American voters was pretty low before this election, but rose dramatically this year. This led me to believe that we really do have voting power in the African-American community, and that our votes do make a difference."

Many students, however, didn't get the opportunity to vote. Catrina Burgess, a freshperson biology major from Milwaukee, Wis., said, "I didn't get to vote because I waited too late to try and register. The fact that I didn't vote motivates me to vote in every upcoming local and presidential election."

For many international students, Election Day 2000 was their first chance to see the American democratic process in action.

Dwayne Harris, a freshperson from St. Catherine, Jamaica, said that what he saw during this election did not motivate him to vote in upcoming elections in his own country. "Witnessing this election doesn't motivate me to vote because I feel that I will not benefit from anything that our elected officials at home do."

Annielia Kissoon, a sophomore business management major who was born in Trinidad, offers a different opinion. "I couldn't vote in this presidential election because I am not an American citizen. I am really active in Trinidadian elections, and I urge all Americans over the age of 18 to exercise their right to vote," she said.

Students also watched a major historical event take place. Due to voting discrepancies in the state of Florida, ballots had to be recounted. Because of this, the election process lasted for weeks.

"So far, the outcome of this election has been ridiculous. First, Bush held the majority of the votes in Florida, then Gore. Later, after the recount, Florida was given to Bush, which gave him the presidency. Although the government doesn't feel that there was a conspiracy among the Bush/Cheney campaign members, I believe that there was," Eaton said. "It is way too much of a coincidence that Bush's brother, Jeb Bush, is governor of the same state that the candidates have fought over since Election Day. This is a catastrophe for our country, and I hope that this will be avoided in the future."

Mack Simon

Mr. Hicks and April Cage are supporters of the Gore/Lieberman campaign. They prepare for the "Rock the Vote" campaign rally. It's time for students to participate in events that can affect their lives.

Jessica Harris and Lekeisha Whitaker share a moment to show support for Gore. Both of these ladies have potential to be the first female president, especially Jessica.

Gray Hall and Tiffany Singleton prepare to walk to the polls to vote. They are only two of the students that walked to the public library to make their votes count.

Dillard students wait in line at the polls. The school provided transportation for students and some of them walked to the polls. They have overwhelmed the poll watchers.

Dean Janice Bartley and the campaign supervisor poses for a quick photo. They are trying to encourage students to vote and let their voices be heard throughout America.

The poll watcher explains to this Dillard student the ways to vote. They are so helpful when it's time to vote. Many students have problems when voting especially if it's the first time.

■ ■ ■ Walk-a-Thon ■ ■ ■

Dillard University students, faculty and staff participated in the United Negro College Fund Walk-a-thon. The walk was held at City Park on October 29th. All funds were raised through sponsorships and donations. The money raised from the walk is given to the UNCF that distributes scholarships to students at historical black colleges and universities.

Dillard and Xavier University compete every year for the President's Cup. This is an award that is given to the school with the most participants. Dillard won with a sixty percent overall participation exceeding Xavier. The walk-a-thon was sponsored by the McDonald Corporation, who was on site to give refreshments to the participants.

This yearbook staff member, LaShaunte Humphrey is having a great time with friends. Ronald McDonald decides to pose for a quick photo after the walk.

These freshpersons shows off their great looks after the extended walk. Brandy Chaisson and Shelly Alexander along with a few friends really don't look like they worked out long enough. Let's make them work harder next year.

It's time to warm up for the BIG WALK. Everyone stretch your arms to the sky. These DU devils get ready to walk all over those Xavierites.

We are all proud to be DU devils. So let's hear it! "Devils in the front let me hear you grunt, devils in the middle let me hear you sizzle, devils in the back show them where it's at."

Sherese Nix and Harold Colclough looks on as their friends perform after a long day. They're too tired to participate in such an event. Anne Louis is sure enjoying that bag of chips and she's not planning to share with anyone.

Everyone strolls in after walking in the heat. It's now time to shake a "tail feather" for old time sake. Pull out the handkerchiefs and second line.

Cornelius Jones gives a helping hand to fellow Blue Devil, Thelma Craig. It's always great to receive a good shoulder and neck massage before an extreme work out. Watch out ladies Mr. Jones has magic fingers, take a number and step to the back of the line.

Students signed up to contribute one pint of blood for a worthy purpose. This year the blood drive was held the day after Halloween. They received a nice shirt for the contribution.*

Students aren't the only donators, there are also many staff and faculty members that contribute. The students feel very comfortable with the nurses and feel great after performing a good deed, that can save another life.

Kendra Smith

Kecia Brown close her eyes and dreams about her dream vacation to avoid the thought of pain. She bends one arm beside her head and take it like a pro.

Mrs. Rachel Mercadel pays attention to the nurse's every move. She wants to be sure that everything is going okay. She enjoys donating to a good cause.

Vampires don't have nothing on this nurse. The nurse shows off her skills as she swiftly takes a pint from the patients without her feeling a thing. "Beat that Dracula"

DR. MICHAEL L. LOMAX

A Leader for the Present & Future!

Dr. Michael L. Lomax is a leader that has brought Dillard University into the New Millenium. He has showed great kindness and leadership to the students. The renovations and changes that have occured on Dillard's campus has marked a new beginning for this historical institution.

SOMETHING TO CELEBRATE

AVENUE OF THE OAKS GALA

The Avenue of the Oaks Gala was something to smile about. The special guests, faculty, staff and students enjoy a night of entertainment. The guest of honor was Mr. Charles Dutton and he was introduced by a well rounded student, Tory Andrus. While Mrs. Mildred Robinson gets a kiss on the cheek from the Dutton, Dr. Gloria Wade-Gayles boogied down to the music.

Dr. Lomax and his wife were also in attendance with many other faculty and staff members. Many described the evening as magical.

Kendra Smith

DILLARD HISTORY

Dillard University is a private, undergraduate liberal arts university whose history dates back to 1869. It was then that the American Missionary Association of the Congregational Church founded Union Normal School (later renamed New Orleans University). The Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church founded Straight University (later renamed Straight College). The merger of these two institutions of learning on June 6, 1930 gave birth to Dillard University, "a university dedicated to making no distinctions as to race, religion or sex in the admission of its students or in selection of its faculty."

James Hardy Dillard -----a white philanthropist and educator -----gave the school its motto Ex Fide Fortis: From Confidence, Courage. The school was, in turn, named after him. The establishment of the school's Nursing program in 1942 led to the way for the establishment of many other excellent programs, including the Japanese Studies program and the National Center for Black-Jewish Relations. In 1993, the Samuel Dubois Cook Fine Arts and Communications Center opened housing the latest in broadcasting, music and theatre facilities. Recent renovations include the revitalization of Albert W. Dent Hall, Kabacoff Plaza, and Fannie C. Williams Hall, a female dormitory. These renovations, along with future projects, keep Dillard University among the most vital and beautiful campuses in the state.

CELEBRATING OVER 130 YEARS!

CELEBRATING OUR FOUNDERS

FOUNDER'S DAY CELEBRATION

Founder's Day is a day to celebrate the rich history of Dillard University. The founders are honored on this day while students, faculty and staff reflect on the great foundation in which Dillard was built upon.

The roots of Dillard lie deeply planted in the soil of the city of New Orleans. Its branches, however, have spread not only throughout the entire United States, but worldworld as well.

CAMPUS CONSTRUCTION

"What is all that noise?" This is a question students asked themselves when they awoke in the morning. Campus construction has begun on campus. There has been renovations to Williams Hall and the new gym floor making Dillard the college of new beginnings. The campus has gone through changes in its lifetime and with more improvements to come more students are becoming attracted to this historical institution.

Other improvements include the new fence that is being constructed and the addition of the benches on the Avenue of the Oaks. Students now have a place to relax and enjoy the beautiful scenes of Dillard's campus.

DILLARD UNIVERSITY CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

A SHOWCASE OF OUR MANY TALENTS

The University Theatre at Dillard
presents

The Gospel at Colonus

by Euripides and Bob Fosse
Directed by Dr. Alex C. Marshall

"As simply a gospel concert, it is glorious. As an innovative approach to Greek drama, it is astonishing. As a total theatre experience... it is sheer alchemy... You'll hate yourself if you miss it."

—The Washington Times

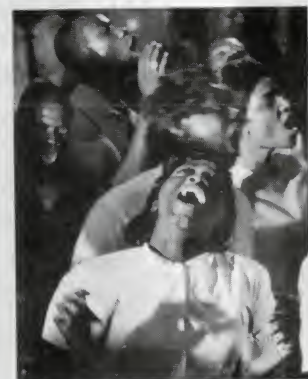

"One of the most exhilarating and original theatre pieces to appear in some time."

—The Wall Street Journal

"Upon first reflection, it may strike you as a preposterous marriage. But, once you've seen it, it seems, quite literally, a marriage made in heaven... The transcendent message of this strange and unique show is that mankind's wounds are not beyond mending."

—The Washington Post

What an unlikely combination! A classic play from ancient Greece is performed as a Black gospel church service in 21st-century America. The story, as told as the evening's church sermon, is about the final days of Oedipus Rex in his quest to reconcile his past.

DILLARD UNIVERSITY THEATER

Dr. Alex C. Marshall has displayed his students' talents through the theater arts. The theater has four performances during the academic year. They were "Lotto: Experience the Dream," "Eden," "Joe Turner's Come and Gone," and "The Gospel at Colonus." Ken Conner and Maria Darnell both assist in the production of the plays. The actors and actresses in the plays are multi-talented. They possess award winning attitudes and performances that entertain students and patrons. All the plays were a success, now the patrons and students only can wait for next year's showcase.

FACULTY & STAFF DINNER

Dillard University would not be among the top HBCU's without their wonderful faculty and staff. The professors and administration help students through good and bad times. Everyone needs a break sometimes. Watch them unwind and settle down at the Faculty and Staff Dinner.

These faculty and staff members deserve an evening to reflect on the great job that they have achieved. Everyone should be honored for their achievements such as Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Davenport. This was an evening to remember.

Kendra Smith

FACULTY & STAFF SHOWDOWN

REDEDICATION OF WILLIAMS HALL

The renovations of Williams Hall have delighted most of the female students. The Hall was closed for renovations Spring 1999 and reopened Fall 2000. Ms. Jane Mearon, the dorm director for Fannie C. Williams Hall, is happy to welcome back most of her residents from the Fall 98 semester.

Williams is equipped with all the latest technology. The residents have cable t.v., internet, and personal phone lines. The rooms are suite style with private bathrooms. This new facility is very beneficial for the female residents.

CORONATION

Dillard 2000 University

To My Beloved Dillard University Family,

I am truly honored to have been chosen by my peers to represent the university as Miss Dillard for the 2000-2001 academic year. My acceptance of the crown is an acceptance of the responsibility to serve. This simply means that I view my crown as a forum from which I can render service and provide access to information that benefits our student body and the community where we live. I accept this opportunity to represent Dillard University as an ambassador. Most of my efforts for the duration of my reign will be a continuation of what I have already been doing throughout my lifetime, but with a greater emphasis on my role as a student ambassador for Dillard University. With this position I can test my talents against my dreams to develop the tools I need for the rigors of the life experiences that might lie ahead. My principle purpose and aim is to establish, maintain, and encourage high standards of morality, cultural awareness, academic excellence, and spiritual development. As Miss Dillard University, I want to help influence, challenge, and inspire the personal growth within our Dillard community. I am eager to work with the Student Government Association on service projects that will inform the community on health and lifestyle challenges that one may face in their daily lives. Whether such efforts find me involved in the participation of educating the public about prostate cancer or breast cancer, prevention of domestic violence and date rape, or providing food, clothing, or shelter for the less fortunate. I wanted this honor, not for prestige and glamour, but because I wanted to take a personal role in expanding the student body's involvement on campus and throughout the greater community. I believe strongly in making a lasting and meaningful contribution to all humankind. To be Miss Dillard shouldn't begin and end with the coronation ceremony; for me it is a step toward the realization of a lifelong dream of closing the gap of need, neglect, and lack of knowledge through support, education, and involvement so that all of us can live the best lives possible. I encourage you to join me to embrace our heritage and the 7 principles of Nguzo Saba on the path of opportunity, success, scholarship, and service throughout the millennium. Thank you & God Bless.

Sincerely yours,

Africa Joanalene Harris

Class of 2002

Point-of-View

Candace Hammond
Political Science
Houston, Texas

"Since my freshman year, I have made friends that will last a lifetime. I've seen my friends and myself mature into productive adults." She is excelling in the classroom and devotes her spare time to the Political Science Club, Pre-Alumni Council, & a Dillard University Campus Girl Scout Leader. "I have grown to love Dillard and would recommend the university to any potential scholar."

Torray Johnson
English
Los Angeles, CA

"Upon my arrival to Dillard University, I experienced culture shock. I hated it here and cried my first night here because I was nervous about my new home." He warmed up to the Big Easy once he made new friends. "Once I got to know people especially my L.A. homegirl and dear friend Candice Jackson, things got better and I slowly adjusted." He began to extend his circle friends by getting involved in campus activities. He is the treasurer of the Pre-Alumni Council and Asst. Director of the 2000 SAR Math and Music Workshop. "I want to give back to a system that has been so fundamental in my development. I want to teach at Dillard after becoming a part of the Negro Caravan."

CAREER DAY & GRADUATE FAIR

The career & graduate fair is an experience to prepare a student for the future. Stantelle Steib gets great information from the Navy recruiter. While Benny Colbert and Amy Smith receive information from the Ford representative. These two freshpersons feel that they should get a headstart on career goals.

Class of 2003

Point-of-View

Brandy Littlejohn
Business Management
Houston, TX

"I think it's basically what you make it. I enjoy it because I'm involved in a lot of activities, and I have been since my freshman year. I guess if you're not active, then of course it's going to be boring for you: you're not going to like it, but Dillard isn't for everybody." She says it's great to be around educated black people. "I came here because it was a small school, the campus is family oriented and the faculty is very helpful."

Edward Jackson
Political Science
Shreveport, LA

"My life here at Dillard has been very nice. Dillard is a family-oriented school, which is something great. That's something I think everybody should look on and that's what has helped me get to the point I am now." He stated that Dillard was his first choice among the offers from Grambling, Clark, Southern, and Howard. "I'm trying to walk in the steps where I can be the first Mr. Dillard University. I'm going to work hard to get some positive young men in high positions, if that's the last thing I do before I leave here."

Point-of-View

Mark Stevenson Samuel
Economics & Finance
Houston, TX

"I like Dillard University for several reasons! The campus is neither too small nor too big. Dillard has a great reputation in the community and there is a sense of family within the student body. The student-teacher ratio is great; I feel like all of my professors are accessible when I need them. What I like most of all, though, is that there are some great women on campus."

April Temika Payne
Nursing
Mount Vernon, NY

"By coming to Dillard, such a well-known historically black university, I've met many friends from all over the United States. Dillard wasn't my first choice when I was choosing a college, but it was my best choice. Dillard has so much to offer, with its great Nursing program and central location here in New Orleans"

Lawless Chapel Ministry

Mission

LAWLESS CHAPEL MINISTRY

The Lawless Chapel Ministry, also known as ALCM, has its own mission statement. Their mission is to:

Be a physical, speaking reminder of God's presence at Dillard University, God's sense of justice and God's compassion; they seek to embody the good news of Jesus Christ. Represent the university community's compassion and concern to individuals and groups both in the university and beyond it,
To foster and further spiritual and religious growth among students especially, but also throughout the community and
To help identify, encourage and develop leaders for the present and the future of the Church.
The leadership and members of LCM undertake to prove worthy of this marvelous mission by Providing a joyful, dynamic and inspiring worship service on campus for all interested persons,
Speaking with members of the community about religious and spiritual concerns, and providing religious-based programming,
Providing prayer and presence at important community events,
Maintaining an awareness of issues in the Church and in other ministries by interacting with other bodies of believers including other chaplaincies and Spreading good news of Jesus Christ by interacting with others who may, or may not, be associated with the Church.
One of the hallmarks of the Ministry is student involvement and participation. Much of the decision-making and budget management is handled by the Ministry's Board of Trustees. Students handle most of the roles on program; the Ministry is delighted to welcome occasional student preachers and special A-days are sponsors by on-campus groups.

Rev. Dr. Jeremiah A. Wright, Jr.

REV. DR. JEREMIAH A. WRIGHT, JR.

Jeremiah A. Wright Jr., evangelist, scholar, author, and activist, is pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, Illinois, one of the fastest growing and most community-centered churches in the nation. Since March of 1972, when he was called to serve Trinity, the church has increased its membership from 87 to over 8,000 and now worships in two centers, the newest of which seats over 2,700 and covers 150,000 square feet. Under his leadership, the Church has constructed two senior citizen housing complexes that provide living quarters for 130 families and operates a federally funded child care program for low-income and unemployed families. For 25 years, Trinity Church has run a federally funded credit union with present assets exceeding $2,000,000.

Pastor Wright's ministry, for over a decade, has extended beyond Trinity Church in Chicago to missions in Ghana, West Africa, Durban, South Africa and to a computer school in Saltpond, Ghana. Under his leadership, 35 seminary graduates have been ordained to the Christian ministry and 29 students are presently enrolled in seminaries.

A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Pastor Wright attended Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia, from which his parents and his grandparents graduated, and after serving in the military for six years transferred to Howard University, where he earned both a bachelor's and his first master's degree. He earned a second master's degree from the University of Chicago Divinity School and a doctorate from the Union Theological Seminary. In addition to his four earned degrees, Pastor Wright has been awarded several honorary degrees from prestigious institutions including Colgate University and Bethune Cookman College.

In demand as a speaker nationally and internationally, he is the author of a number of books, among them "Africans Who Shaped Our Faith," "What Makes You So Strong," and "Good News." He attributes his personal, pastoral and ministerial philosophy to the influence of his father, the Rev. Dr. Jeremiah A. Wright, Sr., and his mother, Dr. Mary Henderson Wright, who showed him by their living what the Gospel of Jesus Christ really means. He shares those lessons with his congregation, his wife, Ramah Reed Wright, his four daughters and his son, and his three grandchildren.

The CXXXII volume of Le Diable Bleu was produced entirely on Adobe Pagemaker 6.0 and Josten's Yeartech 2001 program. The book was printed by the Jostens' Printing and Publishing Division in Topeka Kansas. The staff had access to one Dell Optiplex-Gn computer system. This issue is 8x12 and has a run of 200 pages. The cover is Royal Blue 353 with a Fox Fur grain and one application of Gold Foil 380. The endsheets are Gold Dust 873. The cover was created by Kendra Smith with the help of the resource department of Jostens. The divider pages and layouts were products of Kendra Smith's creative imagination. The theme, A Parallel View of the Past, Present & Future, was developed by Mack Simon. The standard type face is Times New Roman. Marigold and Palatino was used in some sections. Pictures of students, seniors and greeks were taken by Marshall's Studio. The organization, faculty, and staff pictures were taken by Kimberley Henderson and Mack Simon. Joanna Kirby and Julianna Anyanwu submitted several pictures that has been used throughout the book. The coronation and commencement pictures were taken by the university's photographer.

Editor's Notes

The 2000-2001 Le Diable Bleu yearbook is another great accomplishment added to my life here at Dillard. My life here at Dillard is coming close to an end and I just wanted to leave my friends one more memento for them to enjoy in the years to come. I hope each and every one of you enjoy this precious souvenir of your life at DU. This year I had a wonderful staff. There were many of times I wanted to quit because of all the work placed upon my shoulders. I was blessed with the help of one special friend this summer, My Mother. Thanks mom and I love you for your help and encouragement that pushed me to strive for the best. This issue of Le Diable Bleu will be my most treasured because all my creative ability has been placed on every page. Derrick, thanks for all the letters of encouragement, I can't wait for us to party for my graduation. Love You! While working 40 hours a week and producing this book I've learned what hard-work really feels like.

To my boyfriend and Kappa Man, Alvin, although you didn't know much about preparing a yearbook, you always managed to give me that boost of courage that everything looked fine. Your late night phone calls, while I was working on the yearbook let me know that I was not alone and it was possible for me to make it to work the next morning. Thanks for all the love you've shown Boo! Diamonds and Pearls forever!

To my wonderful and sweet line sister, Tonya Major, Thanks for allowing me to use your truck anytime I needed it. I really don't know how I would have made it through those late nights working on the yearbook without a midnight snack. I love you like the sister I never had. Toki, you were my rock and my party buddy, you know I needed a break every now and then from my school work. I look forward to many of those nights hanging out, thanks for being a great friend. To my sweet roommate Tan, thanks for accepting the bright lights in the room while you were trying to sleep and I was up working diligently on this book. I enjoyed my year living with you. Mia, thanks for helping me out when ever you could, it was greatly appreciated. April, Brandy and Johninelle, thanks for keeping my hair looking good and the many meals you shared with me. Annie you are a great friend, stay sweet. Amy and Kimaka thanks for the many great memories in 3632. Amy congratulations and I wish you the best of luck. Don't forget about me and Nicee as we walk down the Avenue of the Oaks.

To my sophisticated sorors of the Beta Upsilon Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc, thanks for all the support and help that you gave me over the year. It's a joy being a part of this great organization and I love you all. Yanci and Candice R. thanks for listening to my problems and giving me just the right advice to help me get through the difficult times.

Now to my hard-working staff, you were all fantastic to work with. I know that your next editor will appreciate the hard work that you all put forth. Ashanti, words can't explain the dedication that you have shown to this 2001 issue. You were a great Business Manager and friend. I wish you all the luck in the world you need to conquer all your goals in life and I thank you by leaving you the position as Editor-in-Chief for the 2001-2002 issue. Jasmin, Shaunte and Tiffani, I could count on you no matter what came along. You were always a phone call away and eager to help in any way possible. Mack, I know you were tired of hearing my voice in your voice mailbox. But you never showed it, I enjoyed working with you and your pictures were great. Amy, Jocquise and Carla, you were all hard-workers even though you had other jobs to take care of first but, I know that you were dependable. Wes, you helped in any and every way you could. It was great working with you. Ed and Bree, although you joined the staff late you were both great assets to the production of this book. Kim, I wish you all the luck in the world, I think you are a great photographer and thanks for the great pictures.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my friends in the post office, Ms. Jackie & Ms. Judy for helping me distribute last year's books. You are all so great and helpful anytime I need it. Mrs. Barnes you are a great person, you were always helpful. Ms. Dotson, I know you were tired of me chasing you down for pictures but you always had the best ones. They were always up close and personal, thanks for your help. Mrs. Robertson, thanks for the advice and all your help. Dean Bartley, I know that you are a hard-working woman but you always had time to listen to my complaints and concerns. Thanks for listening. Finally Dr. Rouzan, you encouraged me to take this job again and it was wonderful working with the advice and guidance that you gave me.

Dillard is a great university, there will always be a time to reminisce on the past, present and future of this great institution. Even when times are tough, there is always a happy moment to reflect on. Once again thanks to all my family and friends for their love and support. I would also like to thank God that I survived another issue of Le Diable Bleu.

Thanks!

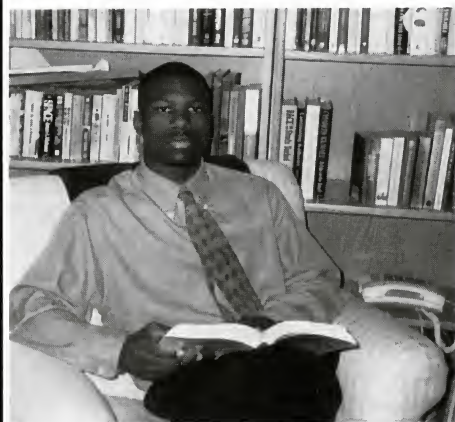

Kendra Smith
